Bourbon Circuit Court.

The only jury case tried Tuesday was that of the Commonwealth vs.
Edward Emerson, under indictment for destroying property not his own. Emerson had cut some wire fencing that had by error been put up on his land.
Judge Southgate instructed the jury to find for the defendant. The jurors were then excused until Wednesday morning, and Judge Southgate proceeded to call the equity docket.

Wednesday was taken up with the hearing of civil cases. The first case entered into was Edsell Clarke vs.
Elisha Taulbee. After hearing the evidence and arguments, the jury retired and returned a verdict of $5 damages for the plaintiff.

The case of H. W. Thompson vs. W.
P. Fisher resulted in mistrial, the jury failing to agree.

Judge Southgate completed the call of the Equity docket, the following cases being ordered filed away with leave to re-docket without notice.

Howard Hoeng vs. J. B. Hoeng;
J. T. Hinton vs. Sherman Ayers; David Alexander vs. Myrtle Alexander; Geo. Bieler & Sons Company vs. Jas. Curtis; Stoll & Hamilton vs.
Desha Lucas; William Edwards vs.
George Beckett; Shelby Kiser vs.
Jacob Keller; Mary Howe vs. J.
Russell Howe; Mary Lockhart Buckner vs. Sallie Catlett Lockhart; Geo.
Wiedemann Brewing Co. vs. Jacob Schwartz; Ford Brent vs. A. B.
Thomason; J. H. Browning vs. Walter
P. Stafford, and William R. Wright vs.
A. C. Shropshire.

The following cases were continued till the June term of court:

Wm. Tarr's assignee vs. Wm. Tarr, Ida B. Martin vs. W. C. Wilkerson; V.
W. Worthington vs. Lucy Taylor; Carrie Prior vs. Minerva McKinney; W. J.
Davis vs. Vernon C. Berry; James Mernaugh vs. Bridget Mernaugh; Alice Gaines vs. Henry Gaines; Lula
Davis vs. McClelland Davis; J. A.
Shucky vs. Jos. Barlow; Columbus Food Company vs. James H. Haggard and E. F. Spears & Sons vs. W. Bush Nelson.

There was only one jury trial in the Circuit Court yesterday, the most of the day being taken up with Equity cases. The jury case was that of Ed Small vs. A. B. Lovell, J. J. Williams, represented plaintiff, and Geo. Batter-ton the defendant. The plaintiff sued for claim of $67 and jury returned verdict for him in sum of $34.

Judgements were entered in the following cases for absolute divorce: Lucy Hayden vs. Jefferson Hayden; Julia Finley vs. William Finley; Maggie Morris vs. Hatton Morris.

The only important decision handed down yesterday in the equity cases was in the case of the Singer Sewing Machine Company vs. H. S. Stout. It was a suit to cancel deed from H. S.
Stout to his sister, Mrs. O. P. Carter, Jr., and brother Leer Stout, and to subject defendants interest to the payment of plaintiff's claim. The court refused to cancel deed and dismissed plaintiff's petition.

Held to Keep the Peace.

Phil Deignan was tried Wednesday afternoon before Judge Denis Dundon, being arrested on a peace warrant, and was held to the June term of the Bourbon Circuit Court under $1,000 bond.

Deignan had only recently returned from St. Joseph Hospital, where he had been under treatment for about two months for trouble in his limbs caused from alcoholic drinks. He had for several weeks been refused drinks at every saloon in Paris when he would call for one, he being told that T. F.
Brannon, his best friend, had ordered the saloon keepers not to sell him.

Deignan became enraged to think that his best friend would treat him this way as he was compelled to have either whisky or morphine, and securing a revolver he went to Brannon's place of business Tuesday to compel his friend to take "the lid" off, as he himself testified.

Other threats reached Mr. Brannon's ears to the effect that Deignan was going to kill him and as he did not want to be killed or to kill Deignan, he felt compelled to swear out a peace warrant against him, which resulted as above mentioned. Deignan being unable to give bond was remanded to jail until the June term of court.

The Redemption of Curt Jett.

Growing, Curtis Jett became a creature of his environment. Grown, he became a murderer and degenerate. Imprisoned, he has become a being filled with remorse, a desire to live aright and to be free. The first two points are easily demonstrable. For the third there is available only his own protestations. It is easily comprehensible, to be sure, that he desires freedom; it is not so clear that he has become regenerated and is stirred with lofty, spiritual aspirations and Christianity, says the Courier-Journal.

Glancing over Curtis Jett's stormy life, his crimes, his stolid indifference to right and dogged perseverance in evil, it is hard to think of him as having been suddenly made a model man. His willingness to kill to carry out a bargain, his coarse brutalities and blindness to all that was good stand out so clearly in the memory of Kentuckians, in whose history he has played so active a part, that these may be excused if they do not accept promptly his message of reformation. His conflicting stories of the killing of James B. Marcum, his repudiation of his confessions, his horrid examples of unscrupulous crime and unrestrained mendacity all in time past bespoke so eloquently his distorted and monstrous nature that it is no simple matter to forget them.

But Jett says he has learned a great deal since he has been in the penitentiary and he believes he has been forgiven by divine powers. It is devoutly to be wished that what he says is true. To develop a sort of introspection good for the soul and to train the prisoner's thoughts to things above, these are some of the purposes of prison life. The penitentiary will not have been a futile influence if Jett shall become really a convert to truth, sobriety and brotherly love.

The penitentiary was the right place for Jett. "The best thing that ever happened to me was when I was sent to the penitentiary," said he in his Message to the Whole World. Whether Jett himself realizes it or not, sympathetic persons who have followed his case know that it was inevitable that he should end in the penitentiary or on the scaffold, not so much through his own deliberate wickedness as through his weakness, through his inability to resist the sinister influences to which he was subjected by conscienceless villains of Breathitt county who led him into deeds of darkness. True, he was none the less guilty of the crimes because of his subserviency to stronger men; he was not to be excused from the penalty of his sins because he committed them from a heart and mind warped from evil companions; in the last analysis the law was bound to hold him responsible for his own crimes; but there was necessarily existent a feeling of pity for the loathsome creature of an ugly environment. There lurked the feeling that Jett really had not had a chance. The penitentiary, here he belonged for his crimes, might afford him a chance, although whether it would or he would avail himself of it was doubtful, at best. He says it has transformed him. Has it? No one knows exactly; he himself may be dissembling; if he is speaking genuinely would still be unconvincing, for there is no temptation in prison walls. When the devil is in prison a devil a monk would be. For his sake and for humanity's sake it will be generally hoped that he is really a better man. But it will do no harm, in view of all circumstances, to see how his boasted regeneration stands the test of time.

In his written statement of his redemption he gives some good advice to young men, and other men, too, for that matter. "Don't," says he, "be led astray by older heads, for the man that will advise you to do a wrong is not your friend; but I could not see it that way." Most of us think we know what Curt means by this and to whom he refers as the older heads that led him astray. However, this is the first time that Curt Jett has ever publicly admitted the guilt of those who instigated him to commit his bloody crimes, but he owes it to himself and to society to make a more definite and full revelation. Before his repentance and reformation he recanted his confessions and insisted that no one prompted him to do the murders of which he was convicted. He now confesses that he lied, but if he is the new man that he says God has made of him he cannot stop at telling this half truth. Only the whole truth can count for his cleansing. Who caused you to commit murder, Curt Jett? Your confessions of a new birth are worth nothing unless you prove them by making a clean breast of it.

Every Family Should Have One.

Every family should have a curfew which should "ring tonight" says the Catlettsburg Tribune, and all other nights if needed. These curfews are inexpensive and can be made at home. Take a piece of siding two feet long and whittle one end to a handle. Take the child that needs the curfew and end it over a barrel. Now take the siding and use it as a clapper. Put it on hot, dividing the strokes evenly, and see that none miss. Good for a girl or boy up to eighteen and three applications are warranted to cure the most pronounced case of street loafing that exists. The music is said to be more effective than singing "Where is my Wandering Boy Tonight?"

Night Riders Again.

Night riders have resumed their lawlessness in Christian and Caldwell counties. Plant beds of independent farmers are being scarped and sowed with grass and feeding is running high. Four tobacco beds were destroyed near Hopkinsville Monday night.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the delicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than to let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials. The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Best Stomach Remedy Free

It is an old saying that if the stomach is sound the whole body is safe, because so much depends upon the proper working of the stomach. Many persons find themselves with a disorder of the stomach which produces dyspepsia or a peculiar state of biliousness.

If you suffer from both stomach trouble and constipation you are on the way to a very serious disease. From just such conditions come appendicitis, rheumatism, skin diseases and similar disorders, because the waste matter that should have been expelled from the system through the bowels has found its way into the blood and vitiated it. What is needed at this point is not simply a violent cathartic tablet or salt, which usually does more harm than good, but a gentle laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which people have been using for these ailments for nearly a quarter of a century. It cured J. C. Lenham, of War-rensburg, Mo., of stomach trouble of long standing, also William Voll, of 903 Ellis-son St., Louisville, Ky., who had the trouble for fifteen years.

However, if you have stomach trouble you want to know from personal experience what Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will do for you. If so, send your name to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you. You are urged to send for the free bottle, as the results from it will be the best recommendation of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Then you will do as over two million people did last year—send your druggist and buy a regular bottle at 50 cents or $1, according to the size you prefer. We could mention hundreds and hundreds of families who are never without it. You can never tell when some member of the family will need a laxative, and then no time should be lost taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service.

What Railroads Must Do.

In an opinion which was given to the Secretary of State's office Tuesday, Judge John F. Lockett, Assistant Attorney General, holds that a foreign railroad need only file copies of its articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State at Frankfort and need not incorporate under the laws of Kentucky. There was some doubt as to the law on this subject on account of what seems to have been a mistake in the statutes.

Deserters Save Republican Or- ganization.

With complete victory almost within their grasp, the House allies, the insurgent Republicans and the Democrats, were deserted by a sufficient number of Democrats to save the Republican organization. In the end the rules were amended in three important particulars and the men who have been fighting to break the power of the Speaker gained ground. The tension was high throughout the session and many times the debate grew warm, Champ Clark, the minority leader, clashing once with Representative Daizell and later with Representative Fitzgerald, the leader of the Democratic deserters.

A Home for Aged Widows and Wives of Confederates.

[From Confederate Home Messenger.]

The final settlement of the celebrated Parr estate assures an early provision for aged and dependent women. The Parr will involve property at over a million dollars. Some $800,000 of this he bequeathed for an old woman's home, to be known as the "Parr Rest." The will was regarded as unjust to three of his legal heirs, consisting of three children, and was contested in the courts, which has taken up several years' time. It has finally been settled out of court to the satisfaction of all concerned.

The property has accumulated from income and increased in value in that time, and the amount available for the "Parr Rest" is about $600,000. About $150,000 of this will be spent in building and equipment of the Home and the balance as an endowment for its support. This fund is left in the hands of a board, consisting of men most of whom are members of the Baptist church. So far as we have been able to learn there are no restrictions whatever upon one's eligibility to become a beneficiary to this munificent gift other than that she must be old, with no means of support and incapable of making her own living.

It is believed however, the Board will arrogate to themselves the power of restricting the benefaction to the State of Kentucky. Captain Parr stipulated the Home should be located in Jefferson county, Kentucky. The Board is looking for a location in the Eastern part of the city of Louisville, where the ground is high and healthy, and where there are many beautiful sites.

This Home, of course, means a Home for the aged wives and widows of Confederate Veterans, who, we hope, will be among the first to apply for admittance. About thirty men in the Confederate Home have wives; true, some of these are young wives; married later in life, but the majority of them are old and as helpless as the Veteran husband, and in need of just such benefaction.

It is a noteworthy fact that Captain Parr who has provided so magnificently for the old women, gave the first $5,000 that made possible the Confederate Veterans' Home, a fact that we shall always recall with inexpressible gratitude. That a man who was not in any way connected with the Confederate cause, a steamship captain on the Ohio river during the war, should late in life have his sympathies so aroused for the aged and infirm as to bequeath nearly all of his estate for their care is most unprecedented; we know of none other like it. It is well known that his bequest for the Veterans' Home was made at the request of his daughter, Mrs. Sale, whose Confederate interest comes through her Marmaduke relatives who served in the Confederacy.

While the donation by Captain Parr was added to by the United Daughters of Confederate Veterans and friends over the State to make up a sufficient amount with which to purchase the present accommodations, and while it is the property of the State and supported by the State, yet it is this first donation that we feel we owe much, and in recognition of this fact it is suggested that a day be set apart as a memorial to Captain Parr, to be known as "Founder's Day," and observed in some suitable way as an expression of our appreciation and grate-tude for the comfortable provision by which more than 400 men have been provided for.

The "Parr Rest" for old women will not belong to the State, but in the hands of a Board of Trustees, and will not be ready for occupancy for more than a year yet.

Dangerous Step.

A move to change Inauguration Day to May or June is a dangerous step that is if the people expect interest in that important event to be kept up.
That is crowding on to the base ball season, and with the call of "play ball" interest in everything else ceases. By no means let such a small matter as the inauguration of a President in the least interfere with the National game.

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Paris Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Paris readers.

Mrs. J. C. Kenney, W. Main street, Carlisle, Ky., says: "I was bothered for twenty years by kidney trouble.
For some time I would be in the best of health, then an attack would make its appearance and for months I would be in constant misery. Sometimes my back pained me so terribly that I thought it was broken and the passages of the kidney secretions were painful and too frequent, annoying me greatly.
Mr. Kenney, seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, procured a box and insisted on my trying them. As I had heard a great deal about the cures they were performing, I thought they might help me and began taking them. Before I had finished the contents of one box, my kidneys were strengthened, I was free from pain and felt much better in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills cannot be praised too highly."

Mr. Eldridge comes highly recommended and is pleasing in every particular. Seats go on sale Saturday morning, March 27, at the drug store of Smith & Wadell. General admission 35 cents; reserved seats 50 cents. Mr. Eldridge presents a widely varied, artistic and popular repertoire of ordered impersonations of a high order, changing quickly from humorous to pathetic and dramatic to sentimental representations. He is today one of the most practically certain attractions on the platform. During the last two years he has filled more than two hundred engagements and we have yet to hear of an adverse criticism. His line of work reaches all classes from those who like the subtle humor of good old "David Harum," to the tragedy of "Julius Caesar." We bespeak for him that degree of consideration which we know his merits deserve.

Big "Holiness" College Burns.

Asbury College, main building, and the building occupied as a boys' dormitory and music hall were totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning at Wilmore, Ky. The Asbury College building was a brick structure, and the other was of frame construction. The loss is variously estimated at from $60,000 to $75,000. There was $20,000 insurance on the buildings.

$10,000 Fine Sustained.

The Court of Appeals Wednesday adjudged that the Indian Refining Company must pay a fine of $10,000 for polluting the waters of Elkhorn Creek with refuse oil, caused by overflow from its reservoirs near Georgetown, Scott county. The refining company was indicted in the Franklin Circuit Court. Residents along Elkhorn testified that the water was rendered unfit for drinking and thousands of fish killed by the oil in it. The case was very hard fought in the lower court and attracted much interest.

Many Witnesses Examined.

The court of inquiry, which has been conducted at Carlisle for several days by Judge G. S. Burroughs, County Attorney John F. Morgan, City Attorney I. B. Ross and Chief of Police C. C. Dunn, who have examined a large number of witnesses has adjourned for a few days, but is to be resumed for another session when a number of new witnesses will be subpoenaed. The officers are making a determined effort to find, who, if anyone, is violation of the local option laws, and it is said a number of warrants may be issued soon as a result of the inquiry.

W. P. Kimball Honored.

The banquet at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, Tuesday night, in honor of the Hon. Wm. P. Kimball, of that city, upon this retirement from Congress after single term that was marked by that degree of ability and understanding that is seldom the assets of Congressmen after man successive terms, was an affair of such brilliancy and magnificence not often witnessed in the social affairs of Kentucky's distinguished and renowned.

The large dining hall of the Phoenix was handsomely decorated with ferns and potted plants and the walls with banner and national flags. There were probably one hundred and fifty guests assembled to do honor to Mr. Kimball, and it was done in royal old Kentucky style.

Hon. J. T. Hinton, James H. Thompson, Wm. Remington and Swift Champ, of Paris, were present at the banquet and speak in glowing terms of the affair.

Wearing O' The Green.

It was easily told by the wearing of the green on the coat lapel Wednesday by the lovers of old Ireland that it was St. Patrick's Day. The personage whose natal day was celebrated with such enthusiasm by our Irish citizens was unquestionably the brightest luminary that adorned the Emerald Isle, for by his almost herculean labors he rescued that land from paganism. Some uncertainty exists to the date of St. Patrick's birth. The most reliable historians however, concur in the belief that he was born about the year 393 in the British Roman province of Valencia, at a place near Clyde, not far from Dunarton, called Kirkpatrick. About the year 432 he began his missionary work of converting the pagans of Ireland to Christianity. It is said that during his stay in the island he founded 36 churches, baptized with his own hands more than 12,000 persons and ordained a great number of priests. He died about the year 469 at a place named Saul, near Downpatrick, and his relics were preserved at that place till the time of the Reformation.

DEATHS.

—Mr. Frank P. Clay, Sr., one of Bourbon county's oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, died at his home on the Georgetown pike Wednesday afternoon, in the ninetyeth years of his age.

Mr. Clay was a native of Bourbon, born October 26, 1819, and was the son of Henry and Margaret Helm Clay, his parents moving from Virginia to Bourbon in 1785. He was the next to the youngest of eleven children, and was the last survivor of a noted family. His father was a veteran of the Revolutionary War. Mr. Clay was united in marriage in 1842 to Miss Susan R. Wornall.

He received a common school education and was a farmer and stock raiser. For many years President of the Paris and Georgetown Turnpike Company. Before the war he was a Whig in politics and owned many slaves, but after the close of the struggle he identified himself with the Democratic party.

Mr. Clay was a member of the old primitive Baptist church and was a conscientious and earnest Christian. He was importuned often to represent his county in the Legislature, but always declined political preferment. He was a man of strong convictions, in manner gentle, polite and agreeable. His home was noted for its hospitality.

Mr. Clay is survived by three sons, W. H. Clay, of Lexington; O. P. Clay and Frank P. Clay, Jr., and one daughter, Mrs. Walker Buckner, of this county.

The funeral services will be held at the residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. H. Wallingford, of this city, a retired minister of the same faith. Burial in Paris cemetery.

—Christine, the one year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Mitchell, of Lilliston Avenue, died Monday night. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, at the residence, conducted by Rev. M. T. Chandler, of the Methodist church. Burial at Paris cemetery.

—Dr. William Jones, who, by his historical works and close association with General Robt. E. Lee and General Stonewall Jackson, gained the title "Historian of the Confederacy," died late Wednesday at Columbus, Ga., at the home of his son, Dr. Ashby Jones, aged 73 years. The interment will be at Richmond, Va., his home, Saturday afternoon.

—Capt. Thos. C. Jones, aged 73, died at the home of his niece, the wife of former United Senator William Lindsay, at Frankfort. He served in the Confederate Army and was afterward prominent in Kentucky politics, serving as clerk of the Court of Appeals six years. For several years he was consul to Funchal, Madeira Islands.

On Petition.

NOTICE OF SALE.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale made and entered in the above styled action on the 8th day of March, 1909, I, the undersigned Special Commissioner of the Bourbon Circuit Court, will at 12 o'clock, noon, on Wednesday, March 24, 1909, at the court house door in Paris, Bourbon county, Kentucky, expose to public sale, to be sold to the highest and best bidder, the property mentioned in said judgment, which is particularly described as follows, to-wit:

A tract of land situated in Bourbon county, Kentucky, near the city of Paris, lying on the waters of Houston creek, and bounded as follows:

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES.

—The wise farmer will not plant more tobacco than he can cultivate properly.

—Twenty-five cents per pound is being quietly bid by Paris merchants for wool, and several clips have been sold at these figures.

—N. M. Burgess, of Sadieville, bought of Lee Houston, of Harrison, 32 head of fancy 1,400 pound cattle for July delivery, at 6 cents a pound.

—W. G. McClintock, of this city, sold Tuesday to Mr. Fritz, of Pennsylvania, a five year old mare for $115. Mr. McClintock bought in Mt. Sterling Monday, two mules for $350.

—Next to pure air water is the cheapest thing we can supply our poultry. Do not forget that it must be given in order to get eggs. Reduce the quantity and the eggs will go with it.

—Mr. R. P. Hopkins, of Little Rock, bought of Hubert Potts twelve acres of land which squares his farm and gives him an outlet to the Paris & Jackstown pike, for $125, and other valuable considerations.

—A Lancaster firm purchased in Madison county this week the crops of hemp of a number of the leading farmers in that county, whose acreage was large, together with several smaller crops running from 600 to 700 pounds each. The prices paid ranged from $5 to $5.50.

—Nicholas county growers are preparing for a bumper crop of tobacco. The end of this week will find the largest portion of the tobacco plant beds sown. In the timbered portion of the county sawmill men are running full time turning out barn patterns for the building of new barns.

—R. P. Hopkins, of Little Rock, bought of Oliver Harrison, a pair of coming 3-year-old mules for $380. Mr. Harrison bought the mules of Mr. Hopkins on Jan. 1, 1909, for $300, and in addition to working the team almost every day since that time, turns them over to their original owner for a profit of $80.

—Secretary J. W. Dalzell, Jr., of the Nicholas county Board of Control, is in Cincinnati this week checking out Nicholas county pooled tobacco. Mr. Dalzell says the inspection of the Nicholas county tobacco will be completed this week and $100,000 will likely be received next week for distribution among the Nicholas growers.

—The farm of Misses Mattie and Jane Spurr, on Greendale pike, four miles from Lexington, was sold a few days ago at auction and brought the price of $216 an acre, or $5,400 for the entire place. It was bought by Fred Reisor. It contains 25 acres, with a modern 5-room cottage. This is the highest price paid for farming land in Kentucky for many years.

—Monday was court day at Georgetown. B. B. Peak, auctioneer, reported 150 cattle on the market. Young yearlings, 650 pounds, sold at $36.65 per head; 1 bunch 600 pounds at $34.50; 1 bunch heifers $4.00 per 100 pounds; 2 heifers about 500 pounds, sold at $34.50. He sold four pair of mules, two to four years old, at $320, $277, $265 and $320 per pair. A number of mules were disposed of publicly and privately.

—Monday was county court day at Mt. Sterling. There were about 2,000 head of cattle on the market of medium quality and trade was brisk. Prices were high and advanced over February prices. The best feeders sold at 4 1-2 to 5 cents; with extra good ones selling at 5 1-2 cents; yearlings 4 1-4 to 5 1-4 cents; heifers at 4 cents; with cows at

W.B. Reduso CORSETS

The Perfect Corset for Large Women

It places over-developed women on the same basis as their slender sisters. It tapers off the bust, flattens the abdomen, and absolutely reduces the hips from 1 to 5 inches. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

New W. B. Reduso No. 770 for large tall women. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides, also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

New W. B. Reduso No. 772 for large short women, is the same as No. 770, except that the bust is somewhat lower all around. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

Ask any dealer anywhere to show you the New W. B. "Hip-subsiding" models from $1.00 to $3.00 per pair.

3 to 3 3-4 cents. Many yearlings changed hands at 5 to 5 1-2 cents. There were a number of big mules offered and changed hands. The prices ranged as follows: 16 hand mules at $300, for good ones average price, $175; 15 1-2 hand mules at $150 to $185; 15 hand mules at $130 to $150; small mules at $95 to $125. Some of them sold in pairs at $265 to $390. Lexington, Paris, Millersburg and Flemingsburg mule men were in the market but made only a few purchases.

Final Action Deferred.

The District Board of the Kentucky Burley Tobacco Society, in session at Winchester adjourned Tuesday night after all day session in which plans for pooling the crop of 1909 were discussed but final action deferred until the next meeting June 8, when the policy of the Society in regard to the pooling of the crop will be decided.

It has been announced that unless eighty per cent. of the growers pledge their crops the attempt to pool will be abandoned and the three hundred million pounds, which it is expected, will be grown in Kentucky this year, will be marketed without concerted action on the part of the farmers.

Short Message.

President Taft's message on tariff revision as sent to Congress Tuesday. The message is brief, the President contenting himself with urging Congress to take speedy action in revising the tariff and suggesting that other matters be side-tracked until the tariff bill is passed.

EDITH TALIAFERRO AND HER KINFOLK.

—Edith Taliaferro's debut as leading woman—a full grown actress in long skirts—brings to mind a remarkable family, to which she claims blood kinship, and calls up memories of some of her own girlish triumphs in child parts. Miss Taliaferro's mother was a Barriscale, and apparently the fire of genius is concealed under that name, for no less than eleven persons of that blood have made successes as child players, and several have already grown into accomplished actors. Edith Taliaferro's sister, Mabel, whose charm and ability were so strongly in evidence in Yeats' "The Land of Hearts Desire," was the first of the family to attract particular attention.

Then came Bessie Barriscale, an ingenue well known through her connection with two or three stock companies of the better sort, and also remembered for the Madge in "Old Kentucky." The dramatization of Mrs. Rice's "Mrs. Wiggs of The Cabbage Patch" stories have been very kind to the Barriscale blood. On the first production, Mabel Taliaferro played Lovey Mary and her sister Edith, the new leading woman of "Polly of The Circus" was the Asia. Later Edith succeeded in the part of Lovey Mary, and Bessie Barriscale also played it. Another of the family, Bessie Burt, daughter of another of the Barriscale women is playing Europe this season.

Bessie Barriscale has a brother and two young sisters in the profession, still playing child parts. She began her career by playing Mamilus to the Leontes of Frederick Ward and another branch of the family, the Craigs, has contributed four young folks to the stage, all still acting in youthful roles.

Edith Taliaferro first attracted notice in the "Bonnie Briar Bush," with the late James Stoddard. Then she had several parts of small consequence and joined Ezra Kendall in the "Vinegar Buyer," and afterward in "Weather-beaten Benson." Her last engagement was as the child in "Martha of The Lowlands," with Bertha Kalich. Henry Arthur Jones selected her to play the girl in his "The Evangelist," saying she was the greatest child actress he had ever seen. Now she has left the roles of youth behind her for a time, and is taking on the airs and graces of a young woman in the title part of "Polly of The Circus," Frederick Thompson's big production by Margaret Mayo, which will be seen at the Lexington Opera House on Monday, March 22nd. Matinee and night.

Dope on the New Tariff Bill.

The Chicago Record-Herald Tuesday in a special dispatch from Washington prints what purports to be the positively known provisions of the tariff bill. It says it part:

"No tax will be imposed on coffee.

"Lumber will be reduced from $2 to $1 per thousand.

"There will be free hides and low schedules on shoes and leather goods.

"Steel will be materially reduced.

"The duties on sugar are undisturbed, but concessions are granted Cuba and the Philippines.

"The wool schedule will be aimed at the amount of scoured wool in the fleece. This will permit cheaper grades of wool to get in at less duty.

"Woolens will be slightly reduced.

"Iron ore will be reduced and pig iron will be cut down.

"Fluor-spar, a component part of steel manufacture, will be taxed at $2 a ton."

Refuse Committee Appointments

Messrs. Bartlett, of Georgia, and Olie James, of Kentucky, made good their caucus pledge not to accept committee appointments unless first approved by their minority leader, Mr. Clark, and flatly refused to serve on the Committee on Mileage, the membership of which was announced by the Speaker. No objection was made because of Bartlett's attitude, but it required the vote of the House before Olie James was excused, by the Speaker, although it was manifest the vote was overwhelmingly against excusing him.

Resolutions of Sympathy.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Richard Hawes Chapter, U. D. C. at their last meeting: Whereas, it has seemed good to Almighty God, the All Wise Ruler of the universe, to remove from our midst our Confederate Veteran friend, Alexander A. T. Forsyth, be it Resolved—First, That we, the members of Richard Hawes Chapter, wish to extend to our sister, the grief-stricken wife, our tenderest sympathy in this dark hour of sorrow and grief. Our prayer is, that He who has promised to be a husband to the widow may cover her with his wings, and give her "Beauty for ashes, and oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness." New Tariff Bill.

The new tariff bill was presented to the House of Representatives Wednesday by Chairman Payne, of the Committee on Ways and Means, and referred. Until it is reported out of committee, which Mr. Payne said he hoped would be at an early date, the measure will not become official. The bill provides for an inheritance tax, increased internal revenue of Panama Canal bonds, an increased issue of $150,000,000 in treasury certificates and the imposition duties on a maximum and minimum basis. Coffee, hides and iron ore are on the free list; boots and shoes, leather goods, steel and iron products, lumber, wool shoddy and waste and the cheaper grades of third-class wool are materially reduced. Tea is taxed 8 cents a pound. The internal revenue tax on whisky and beer is not disturbed. The bill, it is estimated, will produce $300,000,000 revenue from customs.

RELIGIOUS.

—Elder C. E. Morgan will be in his pulpit Sunday at the Christian church. His subject for morning service will be "Faith That Works by Love;" evening service, "Getting the Most out of Life."

—Rev. Dr. J. Addison Smith, of Richmond, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive, in a meeting at the Second Presbyterian church, will preach at both services Sunday in that church. Dr. Smith is having large congregations to hear him nightly and much interest is manifested. He is a fluent, forcible and eloquent speaker. His sermons so far have been principally to church members and he hits from the shoulder with the Scripture as his authority. He impresses you as being a deep thinker, scholarly, and an earnest Christian man. The public is cordially invited to attend every service.

—Rev. Robt. W. Davis, of Richmond, Va., Assembly Secretary of the Brotherhood and Boys Work of the Presbyterian church, will be here Sunday. All of the men of this church are requested to meet Mr. Davis in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock for a consultation in regard to the organization of the men of this church into the Brotherhood.

Jury Has Cooper Case.

The Cooper case was given to the jury in Nashville Wednesday at 11.15 a. m. after Judge Hart had delivered a charge of about 30,000 words. The jury is believed to be hung, although it is said the Court will allow them two weeks to consider the case.

Good Answer.

The Richmond Register in response to "What makes the newspapers tell so many lies?" answers "Because we have to get most of our information from liars," and then proceeds to illustrate. A church member informs the reporter the minister is about to resign; it is published, half a dozen members deny it, and next week the resignation is sent in. A house burns; the owner gives the loss at $20,000, but he later settles for $8,000 insurance, and so on, which goes to show that the newspaper is not always to blame for the so called lies.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES.

—W. W. Evans purchased Wednesday from W. E. D. Stokes, of Fayette, for $2,000 the yearling trotter by Peter the Great out of Lydia Thompson by Guy Wilkes.

—W. W. Evans, of Scott, sold Wednesday to "Dick" McMahon, of Chicago, a bay yearling colt by Peter the Great out of Dolly Worthy, 2:17 1-2, by Axworthy, 2:15 1-2, for $3,000.

—With the advent of cooler weather and clearing conditions, over 700 hemp breakers are at work in Bourbon county hemp fields, the sheaves having dried out so as to facilitate the work. It is estimated that it will require $8,000 to pay off the men engaged in the work in the hemp fields of this county alone.

—George G. Speer, of Louisville has been elected Secretary of the Capital Fair Association to conduct the fair at Frankfort this year. Mr. Speer was for years secretary of the Lawrenceburg fair, and was picked to start the Frankfort exhibition off on the right foot.

THEATRICAL.

"LENA RIVERS."

—There is so much that is good in the dramatization of "Lena Rivers" that no one wonders at the extraordinary success which the work has enjoyed. It pictures scenes and people in the South, not in an ideal way, but as everyone knows them to be.

It holds, so to speak, the mirror up to nature, and if, in its closing scenes, it makes one cry just a little bit, it is because of that touch of nature that is placed there so deftly that one forgets that he is looking on a mimic scene. Everyone who appreciates the good that the theatre can do, will like "Lena Rivers." It is all clean and wholesome; its atmosphere is refreshing, and there is nothing suggestive in the story that it unfolds.

Its humor is crisp, quaint and occasionally cracks like a whip. Its rugged epigrams are delightful and its bits of homely philosophy are remembered and laughed at over and over again. The presentation of the play at the Paris Grand next Wednesday evening, will introduce a carefully selected company. The engagement promises to be a record breaker.

OUT WITH IT!

Of course the old metal lined tubs are an abomination—but even some of the more modern enameled tubs are so much inferior to the new models that we are prepared to install for you that you owe it to yourself to look them over with a view of fitting up your bathroom in the latest devices for sanitary living. Come and talk it over with
